SCHEDULE:

Saturday March 18th – Jeannie will cover the all-important foundation skills including engagement, attention, heeling, fronts, and finishes. These foundation skills provide a great start for anyone interested in competing in obedience.

Sunday March 19th – Jeannie will teach Open and Utility skills applying positive proofing techniques.

Seminar hours are from 9am to 5pm.

The building will open at 8am.

Workshop Goals

- ❖ Learn fun games and new tools. Learn how to use these tools for training the foundation pieces of the obedience exercises and how to keep your dog sharp throughout their entire show career.
- ❖ Learn how to build the “right” training relationship with your dog. Attitude is everything! Learn how to build the “want to” in your dog before adding the “have to”.
- ❖ Learn how to be an effective reward-based, balanced trainer.
- ❖ Learn how to create the finished dog by building on success, not on failure.
- ❖ Learn how to use praise, foods, toys, and corrections correctly to get the most out of your dog.
- ❖ Learn how to solve training problems to keep you and your dog on the road to success!

About Jeannie

Jeannie has been training dogs for over 40 years. She has been involved in several performance sports and earned numerous advanced titles in obedience, rally, tracking, agility herding, dock diving and fields.

Jeannie’s passion has always been for competition obedience. She’s earned ten OTCHs; four on Golden Retrievers and sic on Border Collies.

Jeannie credits her success to a basic training philosophy grounded on the following principles: Attitude is #1; Building on Success, Not Failure; Reward-Based Training and Constant Focus on Fundamentals.
